HELMONT PARK RACE TRACK.
N. Y., Oct. 13.—W. H. Daniels won the Nursery Handicap in smashing style at Belmont Park this afternoon. His colt, Two, who was sold in the Spring for $35,000 to E. S. Burke, Jr., and immediately afterward shipped to France in form. He was dubbed the "Gold Brick" and racegoers scoffed at him all the season. Lately he has come back to his form, and to-day has easily the best, beating Touraine, a 26-to-1 chance, a scant length, but with the balance of the field, including Fountain Blue and Kentucky, beaten half a dozen lengths.

Sewell and Grappe were both well placed in the opening event, Sewell showing a slight chance. These two horses had the race between them. Sewell taking the lead soon after the start and winning all the way. Grappe nearly beat Arifair.

Arifair, the favorite, the Brook Cup Handicap, had the race safe when he started in the stretch turn. Aifair, who had been the pacesetter throughout, then went on and won in a drive by a length and a half from Coligny.

Ben Staring, a 30 to 1 chance, won the scramble out of the chute for two-year-olds, heading Ac High, a 10 to 1 chance and Boyal Breeze, the favorite.

MRS. BOOTH CUSTODIAN OF "THE MOUSE" CONVICT

(Special to The Evening World.)
WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Oct. 12.

County Judge Platt today signed an order granting the release of Otto Schaefer, convict and known as "The Mouse," from the county jail here and giving him into the custody of Mrs. Ballington Booth.

Mrs. Booth took Schaefer with her to the State Prison at Sing Sing, New York, where she hopes to reform him.

"The Mouse" promised the Judge that he would turn over a new leaf and live an honest life in the future.

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Oct. 13.—The game here this afternoon between Princeton and the midshipmen was the only game of football this season played by one of the "Big Four" south of Philadelphia. The last game played between the two teams was two years ago when the Navy won by a score of 10 to 0. Frequently Princeton has been trifling offensively. The Tigers are in good condition. McCormick, fullback, being the only one of the regulars out of the line up. On the other hand, the Navy had not shown up well in the games played so far this season and its backs are slow and fumble badly.

three-quarter mile before the game started. At that time there were about 25,000 persons on the grounds, and it was estimated there were 5,000 people on the outside. Some of these were offering $5, $10 and even $20 for admission.

The fence in front of the left field bleachers was broken down and the crowd rushed out into left field. Policemen were forced to use their clubs to clear the crowd and force them beyond the foul line.

So great was the crowd outside the stadium at night that the gates had to be opened an hour earlier than usual.

President Murphy, of the National League team, said at that hour:

"It is certain that the gates will be closed before time for the game to start. I am sorry that I cannot do anything else today but stand here alone behind that honor box. The number there was 34,690 at one of the games last year."

Some. Tinker was run down. Walsh to Donohue to Davis. RUNS.

Sullivan fanned. Walsh walked, Hahn flied—no Chances. Jones cut, Evers to first—no runs. Two outs.

Evers out. Walsh to Donohue. Klinske hit—no Runs. Reubens sacrificed. Sullivan flied—no runs. Hahn struck out. NO RUNS.

Third Inning.

Tenth doubled into the left field corner. Davis doubled into right field scoring. Ewell. Then Pritchett replaced Reubens and flied into the left field corner. He was pitched back walked, but Dougherty caught him. Ewell reaches third. Davis walks. Pritchett strikes out. Ewell strikes out. Davis leading—Tinkers' men throw two more hits. Runners track out TWO RUNS.

Seckling fanned. Schulte hit and Davis flied. Then he hit again. Hahn and Jones threw the ball into the hands of the first base. Schulte going to second. Jones flied into the hands of the catcher. First out. Davis to Donohue. NO RUNS.

Fourth Inning.

Walsh walked, but Hahn flied him. Schulte flied into the hands of the Commissioner John McGaw Woodbury has resigned and his resignation was accepted to-day by the Mayor.

The resignation was sent to the Mayor two days ago, but only reached him last night, and his acceptance of it was his first act this morning when he reached his office.

Mr. Woodbury asserted that he had been subjected to a "blackmail" by the Mayor, and that he had been offered a bribe of $10,000 to resign.

Mr. Woodbury asserted that he had been subjected to political annoyance and interference in his office. This the Mayor denies. The correspondence was made public this afternoon by the Mayor.

test practically clinches the championship. The loser to-day will have to win two games in succession to prevent the other from taking the fourth and deciding game, and with this odds as evenly matched as they have shown as evenly matched, it is probable that the contest will be a close one.

Sir- I beg leave to tender you my resignation as Commissioner of Street Cleaning, to take effect immediately. When you informed me that you desired to continue me Commissioner, you said to me that it was your wish that I should discharge my duties as I had discharged them under the administration of Mr. Low, and that you would "keep the politicians off my back," to quote your own expression. Your attitude has undergone so marked a change in the last particular, and you are now so insistent upon the injection of politics into my department that I am satisfied that my utility and effectiveness as Commissioner must presently cease and determine. As it is therefore no longer possible for me to administer the office with a decent regard for the public service or consistently with the maintenance of myself respect, I demand that I be relieved of my responsibilities.

Most difficult task for either.

Weather conditions to-day were ideal. The ship was calm, the sea was like wind and the temperature was neither too warm nor too cold.

First Innings.

Hahn started with a clean single to centre, Jones followed in quick succession. The ball then came to right, scoring Hahn. Davis hit to Ruzenski and a foul ball was run down. In the fifth inning, Hahn hit a home run, Ruzenski walked, Davis to third, Donahue walked. Donahue ran, Evers to Chance, ONE RUN.

Hoffman had a single to right. Sheek sacrificed to Donahue, unassisted. Scheidt hit to Ruzenski, who sacrificed to Evers, another run.

Bob nodding, Hoffman on second, Chance was hit on the knuckles with a pitched ball and Chance, with a pitch, sacrificed to Evers, another run. Chance was forced, Davis to Isbell, Hoffman scoring. Isbell threw out to first, Scheidt was out. In the sixth inning, second, Tucker batted to Walsh, whose throw was wild and Donahue dropped the ball.

When the Esperanza of the War line came in to-day from Havana there was an impressive gathering of Central Office detectives and Pinkertons on the pier waiting for her. They thought there might be somebody on board who would know something about the whereabouts of the Cuban branch of the assigned banking house of J. M. Cobiello & Co.

After the ship had been tied up at Havana several days before the War line left, some of the Hawkshaw enlisted a dark-brown اسپاس that was a very young man, actually black, along with the boat.

After the detectives had closely eyed the passengers and they had none of them, they then turned to the crew. They had found Mr. Richard Harding, Davis, who was willing to be interviewed on condition that his name and the subjects now before the public, be with the Cuban revolt and R. H. Davis.
